APPROVAL OF MINUTES OF OCT 23 MOVED by Darlene Hartford/CARRIED

GATHERING PEACHLAND'S PAST Darlene Hartford presenting information on the BC Canada 150 project formerly the Historic Water Wall. The committee is actively working within budget to meet the objectives identified in the grant application. They are working with WFN, the Peachland Historical Society, Richard Smith and also consulting local history books for historical content. The intention is not to duplication the museum either in Peachland or Westbank First Nations but rather offer a different visitor experience. Specifically stories, artwork, audio/interactive centres and displays will be designed to inspire intrigue and a desire to visit these museums. The project will be complete the end of February with a grand opening to be scheduled in Mid March.

MOVED by Keith Thom to receive for information. /CARRIED

Disband the Committee The Mayor offered her thank you to all committee members for their expertise and participation in the Canada 150 projects and celebrations.
