

Wilcox Garden

In Jan 2008, Council approved the naming of the Butler Place boulevard garden as "The Wilcox Gardens" in honour of Robert and Florence Wilcox, long time residents of Peachland.

Robert Wilcox died in January 2006. Florence Wilcox died December 2007. Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox cared for the boulevard garden near their home. Fifty-one signatures of support from the community were attached to the Request to Council

"Plant flowers in other's gardens and your life becomes a bouquet" - Author Unknown