

Centennial Corner

Business 2 Consumer Expo Trade Show

This two day family event celebrates the 10th anniversary of the Peachland Chamber of Commerce. If you want a building renovation or to repair your car come and talk to the experts. Writing a boating test – Transport Canada can help. Join a workshop and learn what wines to pair with your favourite foods or learn the latest trend of healthy living with raw foods. Don't miss out on the latest technology in communications and the newest designs in home decor. It's all at the Business Expo. A carnival of kids' games, prizes and cotton candy all add to the celebration. Doors open 10.00 am at the Community Centre Saturday/Sunday April 4th and 5th. Something for everyone.

One Hundred Years of Song

If there are two elements that can brilliantly illuminate the passage of time during our past 100 years they have to be in the world of music and song. That is exactly what the Peachland Variety Singers plan to offer to an anticipated standing room only audience on Sunday April 5th at the Fifty Plus Activity Centre on Beach Avenue. Included in this concert will be the exciting first performance of Ode to Peachland, the song specially composed and written by the Variety Singers as their centennial legacy project. Words by Angela Kanik and music by Dave Smith. Audience participation plus a guarantee to produce smiles, toe-tapping and much reminiscing. The performance kicks off at 2.00 pm. Donations at the door.

Legendary refreshments. See you there.

Gourmet Corner

The much anticipated Peachland Centennial Cookbook being sponsored by the Wellness Centre is now at the printers and will be available shortly. Its one hundred pages contain about 300 of the best recipes from 1909 to the present and it is destined to become a staple reference in every Peachland kitchen. Details to follow.

"In your Easter bonnet with all the frills upon it, You'll be the grandest lady in the Easter Parade"

On Easter Sunday afternoon, April 12th, the Parade assembles at the Peachland Little School House for a chance to have your bonnet declared the prettiest, the most unusual or the most colourful. Bonnet-savvy judges have been recruited and prizes will be awarded. The $5.00 ticket available at the Rocky Top Coffee shop entitles the holder to tea, coffee, small sandwiches, cakes and cookies.

Space is limited so please don't delay.

Peachland History Lectures

The last of Richard Smith's three part series on the history of Peachland is being presented tonight (Thursday March 26) at the Community Centre starting at 7.00 pm. Don't miss this excellent opportunity to explore the 64 year period during which the population of Peachland blossomed: 1945 to the present. Refreshments will be available.

Peachland Centennial Steering Committee
Peachland100@shaw.ca