PRAYER FOR NEW COUNCIL Pastor Kevin Nichol, Peachland Community Church, gave a prayer and a blessing for the new Council to "rule us well."

MAYOR AND COUNCILLOR'S REPORTS

MAYOR HARRIMAN Mayor Harriman noted that Councillor-elect Michael Henderson is away on a pre-planned family matter, and will be sworn in at the December 10th Regular Meeting.

Mayor Harriman thanked out-going Mayor Waldo and Councillors for their work over the past three years. He advised that this is a new era of change and growth; growth will come over the next three years, and changes have already started with several modifications to the Council Chambers. The assigned Council seating will be rotated on an annual basis, and different Peachland artists' work will be displayed on Council Chambers walls every three months.

COUNCILLOR HURD Councillor Hurd noted this is his second opportunity to sit at the Council table, and thanked the voters who supported him. He noted he will follow his campaign platform and will talk less and do more. He asked that he be judged on what he does, not what he says.

COUNCILLOR MORITZ Councillor Moritz had no Councillors report as the portfolios will be assigned tonight. He advised that he hopes and prays he will be of service to each and every person in Peachland.

COUNCILLOR FRASER Councillor Fraser extended a big thank you to the voters and promised to do her best to represent the residents. With her past experience, she noted she is looking forward to working with the new Council members.

FRASER

COUNCILLOR REID Councillor Reid thanked the citizens who voted for him, and the Peachland Voters' Association for hosting the All Candidates Meeting. He looks forward to working for a liveable and affordable Peachland, and noted the next phase of sewer expansion will be a challenge as to costing. He will focus on two areas: bylaws review and a safe and adequate water supply.

COUNCILLOR HALLBERG Councillor Hallberg extended thanks to the voters, and stated she will serve to HALLBERG the best of her abilities with dedication and commitment.
