

Mike Kent was born in North Vancouver. He is married to Odina Skovgaard, the local Notary Public. The couple are extremely proud parents of two beautiful girls; Gracie, age 3 and Charlotte, 10 months.

In 2006 he earned a degree in psychology. Shortly after leaving university Mike began his career with the British Columbia Corrections Branch as a Correctional Officer. After working at North Fraser Pre-Trial for two years he progressed to Community Corrections to work as a Probation Officer. The 12 year law enforcement veteran now works in Kelowna

In 2014 Mike was elected to his first term as a Councillor for the District of Peachland. During his term Mike was known for his level-headed and pragmatic style. He has consistently been a strong supporter of business, civic groups and the arts community. Mike believes strongly in prudent fiscal management and the intelligent allocation of community funds. He has taken a fair and progressive approach to development while considering the needs of all Peachland citizens. As a councillor he is particularly proud of addressing Peachland residents' top priority, water quality, by working to successfully secure an unprecedented 11.8 million in provincial and federal funding to construct a state-of-the-art water treatment facility.

Mike hopes to continue to build on success by revitalizing Peachland's economy and modernizing its infrastructure. Mike is excited to continue growing a Peachland where businesses thrive and its citizens are envied for living in the most progressive and vibrant small town in Canada.
